

PRESS RELEASE

PrologCentral.com is here!

We are pleased to announce the creation of a new website for users of Prolog Manager and Prolog Website software. The purpose of the site is to create a community forum where Prolog users can share knowledge and seek solutions regarding the use and deployment of Prolog products.

We are hopeful that the site will become a valuable tool to be used by the Prolog user community and that it will aid in the successful use of the products.

There are NO MEMBERSHIP FEES for joining or using the site. All costs for running the website are paid for by our sponsors.
